

MAKING CONNECTIONS

The goal of this worksheet is to provide you with an opportunity to review concepts that you have learned in the respiratory and cardiovascular modules in preparation for learning cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR).

INSTRUCTIONS: Respond to the following questions using complete sentences.

1. What is the overall function of the lungs? (4 points)
2. What is the percent of oxygen that we inhale from the air? (1 point)
3. What is the percent of oxygen that we exhale? (1 point)
4. What happens to the body when breathing is interrupted? (2 points)
5. What is the function of the heart? (4 points)
6. Why is perfusion important? (4 points)

7. What happens when the heart is unable to perform its job? (3 points)

8. How do the lungs and heart work together? (4 points)

9. How do the brain, heart, and lungs work together? (7 points)

10. Have you taken a CPR course before? YES or NO. When?

30 possible points